

The Federal Election Commission
Attn: Todd Schumacher
Washington, DC 20463

MAY 5 11 35 AM '97

Identification Number: C00311043

Reference: Inquiry for 30 Day Post-Runoff and Year End Report
(11/21/96 - 12/31/96)

The following is a response to the FEC inquiry for the Brady for Congress Committee. Each question is addressed separately below with regard to contributions from Melany Butler, Mirtha J. Casimir and Thomas Lipar.

NOTE: The Brady for Congress Committee went through five (5) election cycles in 1996 because of the Federal Court ruling regarding Congressional District lines in Texas. The Brady for Congress Committee reflected debt from two (2) of these election cycles. Listed below are the naming of the five (5) election cycles with a notation for those in which debt was reflect by the Brady for Congress Committee to the FEC:

1996 Election Cycles for Brady for Congress

- |    |                  |      |
|----|------------------|------|
| 1. | Primary          |      |
| 2. | Run-off          | Debt |
| 3. | General          |      |
| 4. | Special          |      |
| 5. | Special/ Run-off | Debt |

Schedule A

Melany Butler made a contribution to the debt for the Run-off and a contribution to the debt for the Special/Run-off. (See attached highlighted areas)

Mirtha J. Casimir made the following contribution:

Primary	$1,000 (Made during the Primary cycle)
Special	$1,000 (Made during the Special cycle)
Run-off	$1,000 (Made to the Run-off debt)